The Chairmen of the Board and Maurice Williams & The Zodiacs are two of the most well known and successful beach music bands. Chairmen of the Board was formed in Detroit, Michigan in 1969. One year later, The Chairmen's first recording, the classic "Give Me Just a Little More Time" was released to outstanding success and launched the group into international stardom. Maurice Williams & The Zodiacs have been performing, releasing albums, and touring since the 1950s. Their number one hit "Stay" achieved number one status in 1960 and experienced an amazing revival when the movie Dirty Dancing was released. Both groups are fixtures in the beach music world and have created a legacy of hit songs.

All proceeds will benefit CHS, North Carolina's leading resource in adoption and foster care with the mission to promote the right of every child to a permanent, safe, and loving home.
