CHS Welcomes New Board Members

October 22, 2009 - Greensboro, N.C. – Children's Home Society of North Carolina (CHS) is pleased to welcome new arrivals to the CHS Board of Trustees. Their diverse talents and rich backgrounds will add greatly to the enduring mission of the society.

New Board Members include Carolina Newson Barber of Greensboro, Burns Jones of Greensboro, Larry McAuley of Sanford, Patricia Ingersoll of Greensboro, Ann Barnes Grant of Greensboro, and Mary Dehnert of Greensboro.

Retiring members include Wanda V. Starke, Margaret Benjamin, Lee Harrison, Rev. Diane Givens Moffett, Betty Allison, and Dr. Martha K. Sharpless.

The CHS Board of Trustees is responsible for financial oversight and governance of the agency, which serves thousands of children and families every year. CHS has placed over 14,000 children into adoptive homes since its founding in 1902.
