Children's Home Society 2011 Holiday Cards Now on Sale

October 1, 2011 - Greensboro, N.C. – Thousands of North Carolina children need your help this holiday season. Purchasing your holiday cards through Children's Home Society of North Carolina will help to provide adoptive and foster homes for children in need.

This year, the cards feature the artwork of Katherine Dayton. Using only a blank piece of paper and graphite pencil, Katherine likes to make memories come alive. One pencil mark becomes thousands as she creates a memory her clients will hold dear.

"I created the art for the CHS holiday card as a way to show my support for all the work the agency does on behalf of our state's children and families," said Katherine. "It has been an honor to work with such a wonderful and compassionate group of individuals."

Each Holiday Card set includes 20 (5"x7") cards with envelopes for $25.00. This price includes tax and shipping.

Since 1902, Children's Home Society has been one of North Carolina's leading resources ensuring that every child has a permanent, safe, and loving family. CHS works with public social service agencies and many community partners to help parents create a safe, positive setting for children to grow and thrive, to preserve families, and when necessary, to provide children with a healthy family setting through foster care or adoption. CHS is committed to our vision of being a leader in transforming families and communities so children can thrive. CHS staff and programs serve children and families in 60+ North Carolina counties each year. For more information, please visit www.chsnc.org.
