Delicious Soups, Family-Friendly Entertainment and More at the Family Life Council's 5th annual Lunch by the Ladle soup-tasting fundraiser

Greensboro, NC – Where can you take the whole family to lunch and sample gourmet soups from Greensboro's finest restaurants? Lunch by the Ladle, a soup-tasting event to raise awareness of and funds for the Family Life Council, a division of the Children's Home Society of North Carolina, will take place on Sunday, March 6 from 11:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. at The Empire Room in downtown Greensboro.

Lunch by the Ladle will feature signature soup recipes from local restaurants including Basils & Company, The Bistro at Adams Farm, Chick Fil-A, Giovanni's, Lindley Park Filling Station, Josephine's, Marisol, Natty Greene's, The Painted Plate, Poblano's, Reto's, Southern Roots, Southern Lights, Table 16, Taste of Thai, and 1618 Seafood Grille. There will also be salads, breads, and desserts. Sponsors for the event include First Carolina Deli, Coffeology, Libby Hill, The Fresh Market, Simple Kneads, Just for You Catering, The Great Harvest Bread Co., LeBauer Allergy and Asthma, Cone Health Foundation, Forman Rossabi & Black, SunTrust, Got You Floored, James Clabough, John Redmond, Replacements Limited, Rice Toyota, Deans Office Machines, and William & Queen McSwain.

Tickets for Lunch by the Ladle are $10 for adults, $5 for children. Children age 6 and under get into the event for FREE. Tickets are now on sale through the Family Life Council by calling 333-6890 ext. 221, or visit our website at www.flcgso.com for more information. Tickets will be available at the door.

Since 1968, the Family Life Council has worked to strengthen families in Guilford County through family life and parent education programs. For every dollar spent on family prevention programs, our community saves $10 on costly intervention programs that could have been avoided through effective family life education. For more information about Family Life Council programs go to www.flcgso.com.

For more information about Lunch by the Ladle, including sponsorship opportunities, please contact the Family Life Council at 333-6890.

Since 1902, Children's Home Society of NC has been one of the state's leading resources in the effort to ensure that every child has a permanent, safe, and loving family. CHS works with state social service agencies and other community partners to help parents create a safe, positive setting for children to grow and thrive, to preserve families, and when necessary, to provide children with a healthy family setting through foster care or adoption. For more information, please visit www.chsnc.org.

CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY, FAMILY LIFE COUNCIL, AND YOUTH HOMES have merged into a unified agency to improve outcomes for children and families across North Carolina. For more information, visit www.chsnc.org.
