

Carter is a bright, intelligent youth with an infectious smile. Grades are important to him, and he tries hard to do well in school. Carter loves playing video games, sports, and skateboarding. He also likes scary movies and rap music.

Carter's dream family would consist of an active, young mother and father who live in a neighborhood with kids his age, but he doesn't necessarily want siblings. He would like parents who will spend time with him and would like a cat, whom he would name Toby. Carter desires to stay connected to his older brother.

Carter would do well in a family that is structured yet flexible who are patient and will encourage and support him emotionally and educationally.
