Chance is a sweet, kind, and energetic young man. He is an outdoor kind of kid and loves to climb trees, fish, hike and build forts. He also loves to play video games that are action-packed. Car racing games are some of his favorites. Baseball is Chance's favorite sport; he loves playing catch.

Chance is a loveable guy with lots of people who care about him. Chance would do best in a two-parent, structured home, or a single female home. Chance would likely do best in a home where there are no other children. He would benefit from parents who are supportive in his education and therapy. Chance needs a family that is very patient with him and would maintain a structured routine.
