Get knocked down,
get back up!

Cody is a 16-year-old boy who is a very shy and intelligent young man. He loves political science, history, and discovering conspiracies about the world. He enjoys school, except math. He has an interest in being in the Army when he grows up. Cody also enjoys being outside and he loves the mountains. He enjoys 4-wheelers, exploring in the woods, playing video games, and watching YouTube videos. Cody dreams of being successful, going to college, and positively impacting the world.

Cody has a strong desire for a supportive and loving family. Cody wants a two-parent home and does not mind if other siblings are in the home. He would like a family who has pets, and a family who will allow him to explore the outdoors. He also would like a family who will go on hikes in the wilderness, camp, and mountain bike. He would also like a family who has a similar interest in YouTube and video games.

Cody will grow to love and trust anyone who loves and supports him. He has expressed a desire to have parents that will advocate and remind him that he is important.
