Dymere is a smart, lovable boy who enjoys playing outside with his friends in the neighborhood. His friends describe him as a kid who is funny with a great sense of humor. Dymere plays well with the other children in the neighborhood and makes friends easily at school. He is often the leader of the group. Dymere's favorite subject is Math. He loves watching Cartoon Network, Disney Channel and Nick Toons. Dymere enjoys riding his bicycle, his Hoverboard and playing video games. Dymere's dream job is to become a police officer.

If Dymere could have a pet, he would have a cheetah. He likes the speed and agility of the animal. His favorite holidays are Christmas, Halloween, and Easter. Dymere enjoys those holidays because of the gifts, candy, and Easter Eggs. Dymere likes to read and enjoys all kinds of books. He enjoys going to the library and selecting his own books. Dymere can entertain himself either by playing on his tablet, reading, or riding his bicycle.

Dymere is a delightful boy who desires to be loved and receive affection. He adores hugs and one on one quality time with his parent. Dymere currently volunteers in his community with his foster parent. He enjoys serving the elderly in her neighborhood. Dymere desires to belong in a forever family and would do best in a home with family that has experience in parenting. Dymere not only needs a family that will provide love, safety, and support, but people who can provide clear boundaries, show patience, and be committed to his overall well-being.
