

Haley is a kind and compassionate person, and she likes to help people when they are feeling down. She is also a creative soul. She likes to decorate, organize and she is an expert origami creator (see her work below)! She can create just about anything from memory. Haley says she enjoys singing and likes to listen to country music. She is also energetic, bubbly, and funny. Haley absolutely loves to read and can go through books like crazy.

Haley says she would like a nice, kind, and loving family that will allow her to have a dog.
