"Hi, I am Hanah. I am a reserved teenager but when you get to know me, I am outgoing. I like doing hair and learning about myself. I love all types of music, but my favorite is R&B and hip-hop. I love dressing up and going on outings.

My ideal family would be one who listens to me, allows me to have input on decisions about my life, enjoys spending family time together doing things we all enjoy, is attentive and understanding, can be a go-to person and confidant during challenging times, allows me to express myself as a teenager, and respects my input and opinion. I would like a family with a strong female presence or a single female home."
