

Jayden

age 15

Smart
Friendly
Independent

Jayden is a friendly and smart young gentleman. He is also described as trusting and determined by those around him. He has a great sense of humor and likes to hang out with his friends. He is self-aware and knows how to advocate for his well-being. He enjoys playing sports, watching TV, and playing video games. He hopes to be a professional athlete or have a career in a sports related field. Jayden has great potential as he is learning to become a leader and be independent.

Jayden's ideal family is one that is supportive, patient, loving and cares about his needs and desires. A family that values structure, investing in his development, enjoys having family outings, and understands the importance of family. This family will also support Jayden's desire to remain in contact with his siblings.
