Jeremiah is a helpful and loving young gentlemen. He is caring and enjoys a good laugh. He likes to draw, play video games, and build Minecraft Legos. One of his goals is to collect all the Minecraft Legos to build the biggest design that he can. Jeremiah wants to use his art skills and become a professional illustrator. Jeremiah is responsible as he maintains an after-school job and receives good reports about his conduct. Jeremiah continues to advocate for his needs and voice his desires.

Jeremiah's ideal family is one that is supportive, patient, and cares about his needs and desires. This family will cultivate an environment of love and demonstrate what a family means. He needs a family that values structure, invest in Jeremiah's development and will advocate on his behalf. This family will also support Jeremiah's desire of staying connected to his siblings.
