

Joevon

Age 13

Great Imagination!

Joevon is a lovable, talkative young man with a great imagination. He loves to laugh! He is very intelligent and vocal about his needs and desires. Joevon has a lot of energy that is easily channeled into activities like riding his bike, playing flag football, and playing baseball. He enjoys listening to audio books, playing board games, and playing video games. Joevon really loves eating Chinese food and ice cream. He also enjoys being in a family setting where he can go swimming or plan his next new adventure. Joevon loves to try new things and visits places he has never been before.

Joevon will do well in a home with clear rules, boundaries and follow through. He responds well to praise and rewards for positive behavior and needs nurturing parents. Joevon is a very active young man who will need to continue to be involved with extracurricular activities such as football, basketball, or another sport.
