Mikey

Age 14

Loves
Basketball

Michael likes to be called “Mikey”. Mikey likes playing with his Legos and loves to draw. He enjoys playing basketball and would love to be a part of a basketball team. Mikey is intelligent and does well in school.

A family for Mikey needs to understand trauma and be willing to participate in additional training about trauma if recommended. Mikey would do best in a family where he is the only child or where he would receive ample one-on-one attention. He will be successful in a family who can give him boundaries, structure, support, stability and a male role model.
