

Patrick

Age: 16

Friendly
Funny
Thoughtful

Patrick is a funny, friendly, and thoughtful young man. Patrick enjoys sending funny TikTok videos to his friends, listening to music, and playing video games. He has a passion for “loud” trucks and is looking forward to taking Drivers Education in the future. Patrick hopes to become a firefighter someday. Patrick is interested in volunteering at a fire department or with first responders. He values being treated with respect. Patrick also cares deeply for his older sister and her well-being.

Patrick’s ideal family will be able to show him unconditional love. Patrick would thrive in a family who has strong communication skills and who will give him the attention he deserves. Patrick’s forever family will help guide him through being a teenager and making positive decisions. Patrick needs a family who will be supportive of him staying in contact and visiting with his older sister and other positive connections in his life.
