

Ramello

Age 15

Smart
Loves to Smile
Funny

Ramello describes himself as smart, friendly, and kind and he is all of those things. He enjoys good music, playing video games and going out to places. Ramello loves Mac and Cheese. He is outgoing, friendly, a leader in his groups and has a contagious smile. Ramello is wise beyond his years.

Ramello wants very much to succeed in school. He is focused and interested in many subjects. His favorite subject is Science. Ramello hopes to attend East Carolina University one day or maybe go into the military. He enjoys doing experiments. He is helpful around the house and his best-loved task ever was "feeding the dog".

Ramello enjoys going to church and visiting with his grandmother. Ramello has siblings whom he loves and is attached to and maintaining a connection with them is a must. Ramello has supportive relatives that are important to him, and he is important to them so connections will need to be maintained.

More than anything, Ramello wants a "regular life". He is happy with the mundane hanging around with the people he likes and listening to the radio on long car rides. His taste in music is also well beyond his years.

For more information on Ramello, please contact:
Tami Kinman, Child-Focused Recruiter, at (910) 386-2206, TKinman@chsnc.org,
and visit www.chsnc.org

7-23

We Believe In Families.