Age 14

- ✓ Funny
- ✓ Big personality
- ✓ Caring

Vanessa is a very bright, friendly 14-year-old with a larger-than-life imagination. She loves to watch TV, collect LOL dolls and Barbies. She enjoys Disney princess movies, and her favorite is anything Frozen. Vanessa states, "I would like to write Frozen III because it is inspiring, and it shows how that even though people fight they can still bring peace to the table."

Vanessa is very artistic, and her favorites are drawing and painting. She loves to draw castles because she believes they are the trademark of princess movies. Vanessa loves to sing. Her favorite song, "Elsa didn't go alone." She likes to dress up to look like a princess. Her favorite restaurants are Bojangles and Japanese Steakhouses. Vanessa likes to stay busy with movies, plays and daytrips. Vanessa has been a great travel companion alongside her foster mother. She loves the beach, the zoo, and is looking forward to a cruise next year.

Vanessa has a big personality and is full of energy. She thrives from attention and affection from her caregivers. Vanessa needs a two parent or single mom family in which her imagination and creativity can be nurtured. Vanessa will do best with parents who have experience in caring for children who have experienced trauma. She will be best as the only child or the youngest child in the family. She really wants a family with a puppy.
