

Xander

Age 9

*Superman is my favorite
superhero
because he is indestructible!*

Xander is a smart and active 9-year-old boy who needs a forever family. Xander enjoys playing with his toys, video games, basketball, and swimming. He loves Pokémon! He does well academically but his favorite subject in school is PE. His favorite animals are cats and bunnies.

Xander wants a family who will help him maintain his close relationship with his sister. He needs an energetic and patient family who is committed to caring for him and advocating for his needs. Xander would do best in a family where he is the youngest or only child in the home and can get the attention and unconditional love he deserves!
